February 19, 2019

Effective - Immediately

States - Virginia

Contact – Questions? Please contact your Genworth Sales Team An administrative letter is the method by which the Virginia Commissioner of Insurance formally communicates with entities regulated by the Bureau of Insurance. Administrative letters are not law but are positions that the Bureau of Insurance has taken. They may provide direction, instructions, interpretations, or general information. The Virginia State Corporation Commission Bureau of Insurance releases new administrative letters periodically.

Administrative Letters should be carefully reviewed by any person licensed as an insurance agent in Virginia.
